

Indiana has a "no-"call" law that blocks telemarketing calls if you sign up for it. I have been on the list since it began in January 2002 and it is wonderful. I can answer my phone again, knowing that its someone I want to talk to. Before I had to buy an answering machine to screen out calls I received EVERY day - they even would call on Sunday mornings and I hate to think of how many times the ringing woke me up from a sound sleep and 7 or 7:30 in the morning.

While I realize that maybe the whole country does need a law like we have but I'm afraid anything new wouldn't be as good as the one we already have.

Its time for the telemarketers to wake up and realize that most of use have sense enough not to buy stuff from solicitors anyway.
